VOL. VIII.

RENO, WASHOE COUNTY, NEVADA, WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 25, 1880.

NO. 128.

Establishing a Newspaper.

The Bentonian, a little seven-by-nine semi-weekly published at Benton, Mono county, California, by Dan Jones, has entered upon its second volume. Dan solicited upon the occasion as follows:

Our cash book shows that we have collected in coin just $55.50. Of this sum $21.50 has gone for firewood, $5.50 for freight, $5 for rent and for washing—no, we have worn the same shirt ever since we started the paper—leaving a balance of $24.50 for incidentals, office and household expenses. Against this $24.50 we have given from 14 to 16 hours' labor every day, including Sunday, each week we have printed the paper. The semi-weekly contained, when printed full, about 20,000 ems, making 40,000 for the week, which is the average printer's week's work, without performing any other labor. In addition to this week's work at the case we have looked after the chores of the office; made up the forms; cut the paper; washed the rollers; worked the press; put up the mails and carried the papers. We have bought, begged, borrowed or stolen the firewood, and chopped and split it with a borrowed ax. We have done our own cooking and lived on one meal and a cold lunch per day, never getting a square meal except when a chance half-dollar fell in our way and we would feel so rich that we would rush up to the California Hotel.

A Row in Court.

Lawyer Jacob Wolf, in a trial of a case in the Superior Court of Cincinnati, called the witness a liar, and was rebuked by Judge Harmon, who added: "This case is enough of a circus, anyhow, without counsel making it more so." "That is a pretty remark for a Court to make," Mr. Wolf retorted. "I say your Honor has no right to talk that way. Mr. reporter, put that down. Put down on the record of these proceedings that this court says that this case is a circus." "And put down," said his Honor, "that the Court said also 'without counsel making it more so.'" The proceedings were quiet for a while, until Mr. Wolf got angry at the opposing lawyer, and dared him to go into the hallway for a fight. Further on he addressed the Court as follows: "If your Honor wants authority upon a proposition that original entries are the best evidence, I can produce Taylor and Greenleaf on evidence, and bring in all the books in the library. But I don't suppose it would make any difference. You would decide it against me, anyhow, and I can't help it." Judge Harmon threatened to fine him for contempt, but did not do it, and it was not long before the lawyer was in a quarrel with a man about the possession of a chair, and the police were called in.

A Sale of Autographs.

A remarkable collection of autographs was recently sold at Leipzig, Germany. It comprised a number of letters by heroes of the Thirty Years' War and the great poets and actors of Germany. A letter of Anselm Rothchild fetched the enormous sum of $1,200. It had reference to a loan which one of the petty sovereigns of Germany had effected with the founder of the great banking house, and which he did not want to return. His serene highness is handled without gloves, and receives some wholesome advice on the principles of commercial integrity.

U. S. LAND AND MINERAL LAWS.

With a view to a revision of the U. S. land laws, the Government appointed a commission to travel over the public domain and to collect evidence in regard to the workings of the present system of managing Uncle Sam's farm and mining property. The commission sat in San Francisco a few months ago, and gathered the opinions of a number of the best informed men in land matters on this coast. A report which embodies the results of the labors of the commission has been prepared and will shortly be formally submitted. It recommends many radical changes. The suggestions of the commission will probably be early carried out by legislation. The following is a synopsis of the leading features of the forthcoming report:

It will recommend the classing of public lands into five general classes—arable, irrigable, pasture, timber and mineral. It will also recommend the repeal of the preemption law, on the ground that its chief use now is to increase large individual holdings. The commission will probably supplement it by another, making arable lands disposable under the Homestead laws. The commission will probably recommend that no limit be placed upon amounts of irrigable lands which any one person may buy; that the land be sold at 25 cents per acre, one-fifth to be paid down and the balance at the end of three years, and that no patent to such lands be issued until it is shown that a specified sum per acre, say two dollars, has been expended on its reclamation. Land classed as pasture will comprise unimproved and new mineral lands, not arable or capable of irrigation.

The commission will probably recommend that the quantity one person may buy be not limited, and that the price be graduated as follows: All lands sold prior to 1880, to be at the rate of $1 25 an acre, and all lands sold from the latter date to January, 1880, be at the rate of $1 an acre. After the last named date all lands remaining to be sold at 75 cents an acre, with a reduction of 12 1/2 cents per acre every three years until the minimum price of 12 1/2 cents is reached. Pasture lands shall be open to homestead settlement, no one entry to comprise more than 1,500 acres. It will probably recommend that colonies of twenty or more families may enter homesteads either on arable, irrigable or pasture lands, and lay out a village in the center of the tract.

Radical changes will be recommended in the mineral land laws, among them the following: That the time during which a prospector or discoverer shall be able to hold his claim by possessory title shall be fixed and limited by law; that all local organizations and regulations respecting mining titles shall be abolished, and the sole jurisdiction of all questions relating thereto be reserved by the United States; that the "lode location," which permits a discoverer to follow a lode any distance in any direction, whether within the boundaries of his surface location or not, be repealed; that hereafter every mining claim shall comprise a certain number of feet in breadth and length on the surface, and that subterranean property rights shall not extend beyond the surface boundaries thus fixed. It is quite probable that the commission will recommend for the present from making any recommendation as to the area which each location may comprise. It also recommends a system of official survey and mineral inspection be adopted to prevent blackmail and robbery, and to obviate the necessity of legal contests before claims are patented.

WAR UP NORTH.

The public may confidently expect to hear of the death of a Susanville editor before long. A newspaper war is raging there. There would doubtless have been bloodshed before this, but the papers published there are both weeklies, and the editors have six days to grow cool in before they can reply to each other's attacks. However, they have at last warmed up to their work, and are now pitching into each other in a way that means business. The last number of the Advocate contains a two-column article, headed "In Self-Defense," which begins as follows: "The use of the columns of a public journal for personal matters, or controversy with another journal, has always been deprecated by the editor of this paper, and as far as possible been studiously avoided."

This is a mild start, but see what comes in a little further on, in reference to the proprietors of the opposition sheet: "Who are the Shinn Brothers? Scions of a worthy stock, sons of parents respected and honored in this community, but as unworthy those who gave them birth as Judas Iscariot who gave them a disciple of the Lord."

Having now got fairly at it, the Advocate hurra the strongest personalities against the Shinn Brothers, each in turn. Weed really seems to need somebody to hold him by the coat-tails, as did Mr. Pickwick.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The March number of the California has come to hand, and is even better than its predecessors. The table of contents comprises: "Sand," chap. 3, by J. W. Gally; "Our Relations with Mexico," Henry S. Brooke; "In the Shade," S. E. Anderson; "Shepherds and Sheep-Herding," Robt. Duncan Milne; "First Love and Last," Kate Heath; "Certain Phases of the Chinese Question," John F. Miller; "Nine Days on the Summit of Shasta," B. A. Colonna; "Lex Scripta," Nathan C. Kouns; "Ireland, Her Past and Present Condition," T. H. Highland; "On With the Dance," No. 2, Bashir Bazouk; "One-Poem Poets," Edward Belcher; "Clouded Crystals," Kate M. Bishop; "Mose, the Black Pioneer," R. V. Cheney; "The Wild Flowers Season," R. V. Boudet.

The Chinese quarter of San Francisco is doomed. Thirty days notice has been given the dwellers therein to quit. The Bulletin says that it is the intention to divide the condemned district into sections, and proceed systematically with the work of cleaning up and tearing down. Advice of good lawyers as to the proper manner of proceeding has been obtained. Mayor Kallach is assured that leading capitalists stand ready to join hands with the authorities in this work. They are willing to purchase the real estate and replace the old buildings and rickety structures of the Chinese quarter with good substantial business houses, provided the Chinese can be expelled.

This is the sort of talk that the so-called Workingmen of San Francisco are indulging in just now: "We have held our last peaceable parade. After this our meetings will be held in halls. There will be no noise; they will be secret and silent, and in their silence there will be danger."

Gannon, a chairman of committee, makes this announcement. Some of these insolent rascals will run their heads into a vigilante's halter, if they are not more discreet. There is some talk in San Francisco of reviving the old Committee of Safety.

We have not seen the name of Secretary Schurz mentioned in connection with the Presidency, but there is still time enough to spring his name as a dark, Dutch horse.—Reno Journal.

The Journal is certainly the first to suggest Schurz for the Presidency. The reason of this is that as Schurz was not born in the United States he is ineligible.

It is announced that the revision of the English Bible undertaken by the Convocation of Canterbury, England, in 1870, has now so far proceeded that the revised New Testament will be copyrighted this autumn. In two or three years more the Old Testament will be completed, and a few years later the Apocrypha will be ready for the press.

The Democratic National Convention will be held in Cincinnati. As Tilden wished it to be held in Chicago or St. Louis, the selection of Cincinnati by the National Committee is considered an indication that the Presidential wind is not favorable for Sammy.

T. Shillaber stabbed C. Winters five times in a San Francisco hotel, on Monday night, because the latter had called him a Democrat. There can be no justification for Shillaber's deadly assault, no matter how offensive the epithet may be considered.

The New York Times has a table of delegates already chosen from New York State, which shows the following result: For Grant, 372; Blaine, 123; preference unknown, 34. This looks ominous.

Parson Kelly, late shepherd of the Episcopal fold at Austin, is now a reporter on the San Francisco Chronicle. His new position will give him an ample field for the exercise of his piety.

Surprise Parties.

From the New York Times. Surprise parties have been much less frequent this season than in former years. This will doubtless be interpreted by optimists as an evidence that the world is growing better, and that wicked men and women are growing convinced that surprise parties are a form of crime which admits of no palliation, and are, therefore, devoting themselves to burglary, poisoning, and other lesser and more excusable offenses. This is a pleasant view of the case, but it is unsupported by any evidence. The truth undoubtedly is, that the means of defense against surprise parties have of late years so greatly increased as to render all but the boldest criminals unwilling to incur the risk of invading a household where they may be welcomed with hospitable buckets to boiling or ice-cold baths. Of the various methods of defense to which reference has been made from time to time by the press, one of the most recent and effective is the plan of connecting the bell-handle with a powerful battery. This was tried in an Ohio village not long ago by an ingenious person, who soon after had the satisfaction of seeing from his upper window a surprise party, headed by a large local Justice of the Peace, enter the front yard. The Justice of the Peace immediately seized the door-bell and instantly broke into such unearthly yells and abandoned him self to such frightful writhings that his companions fled in horror, and when the triumphant house-holder turned off the battery the wretched invader of domestic sanctity rolled in an exhausted state from the front steps into the snow, where he would probably have frozen to death, had not his intended victim nobly let the dog loose to bite him back to consciousness. Incidents of this nature have an undoubted tendency to deter all but exceptionally reckless persons from committing surprise parties, and abundantly account for the decrease of that variety of crime.

In Hungry Hollow, Yolo county, last Thursday, says the Woodland Democrat, a lad named Taylor accidentally struck a ten-year-old boy named Curry in the eye with a pitchfork, they being both engaged in hauling manure. The time of the fork penetrated to the brain, and the poor lad died in fifteen minutes.

The girl Zee at the Aquarium, in London, on Jan. 31, was thrown with such force from the catapult that her body went clean through the weak netting placed to catch it as it fell. She only just missed hitting the girder, and fell with a crash that was heard all over the building. When picked up "one side of her face appeared to be black with extravasated blood, her teeth projected through her cheek, and her body was quivering violently. She was perfectly unconscious."

"Young man," said the orator, impressively, "do you want to go down to a drunkard's grave?" "Well," replied the young man, who isn't accustomed to refusing, "I don't care if I do. Whereabouts is your grave?"

NEWS NOTES.

The Omaha Herald no longer gives reports of the debates in the City Council, the reason being that "much of the language is unfit for publication."

The exports of butter from this country are only four per cent. of the production; those of cheese, forty-one per cent. English people eat far more cheese than butter. It is a staple food among laboring men in England.

Capt. Hemphill and his bride are sailing down the Ohio and Mississippi rivers, on their honeymoon tour, in a boat built expressly for the purpose. JOTTINGS.

—The Palace Bakery is doing a fine business. Coffee cake is one of the attractions of the place.
—Two drunken Indians had a lively fight on Commercial Row last evening. One of them got a bad cut over the eye.
—Mrs. Alt will hereafter give dancing lessons on Saturday afternoon as well as on Monday evening. Her class will meet in Kimball's hall. The number of her pupils is daily increasing.
—The bodies of the three men who were killed by the snow-slide at Franktown were buried in Carson on Monday. Burney's was the only one mutilated. The others are supposed to have died of suffocation.

A Carson Girl Abducted.

Susan Chambers disappeared from her home in Carson about a week ago, and is supposed to have been seduced. A barber who was found to have her watch in his possession told the police that he had advanced her $10 on it, and that the girl had gone to Reno. The police, however, think that the girl is concealed somewhere in Carson. The girl's mother is anxious to recover her daughter and take her to England.

Death of Louis Odett.

Louis Odett, senior proprietor of the Lafayette House, died at 6 o'clock this morning. He was born in Henrysville, in the Province of Quebec, Canada. The deceased was a Master Mason, but had not joined the lodge of the fraternity here. He had lived in Reno about two years. For the last three months he had been suffering from the complaint of which he died, a peculiar affection of the head. Mr. Odett leaves a wife but no children.

Personal.

Brook Johnson and J. Morgan are going north on a business trip.
Wm. McFall, the man who was wounded by the snow-slide at Franktown, is at Carson and is getting well. His thigh was dislocated and his body badly cut and bruised.
F. N. Fish, of Aitken & Fish, tomb stone manufacturers of Sacramento, is in town. He is soliciting orders. The firm is one of the best on the Coast and their prices are very low.

The Tahoe Snow-Slide.

The report that seventeen men had been buried under a snow-slide at Lake Tahoe proves untrue. A slide occurred there but no one was injured.

THE SNOW BREAKER.

A Horse's Marvelous Instinct.

The Truckee Republican gives the following account of a wonderful horse: The loose snow drifts deeply between Truckee and Sierraville. The mail is carried tri-weekly, hence the road has to be traveled one way each day. During the heavy winter weather, the sleigh which carries the mail is drawn by three horses driven tandem. By this means a single broad path is beaten in the middle of the road. When the storms are raging it is necessary to carry the mail on horse-back. Its average weight is from 100 to 150 pounds each trip. The mail bags are strapped on two horses which are led by the driver, Sol Rousseau, who rides a third horse. A fourth horse, with only a halter on, is turned loose to break the snow. This horse is kept for this sole purpose and is called "the snow-breaker." For six winters this animal has traveled the Sierra Valley road. Turned loose at either Truckee or Sierraville, he will set out on his dreary journey. The winds obliterate every trace of the narrow path, but with marvelous instinct the horse follows its every turn and winding. Sometimes the huge drifts bewilder him for a moment, and missing the hard beaten path he sinks out of sight in the loose snow. Out of sight is used quite literally, for it frequently occurs that his body is completely covered, and his head alone is above the surface. If he knows on which side the trail lies, he will plunge and struggle to regain his foot-hold. If, as sometimes occurs, he is confused as to the proper direction, he possesses the wonderful instinct of keeping perfectly quiet until the driver dismounts from his horse and comes forward to point out the road. By means of a long stick the driver finds the trail, and beating a path for a few feet in front of the discomfited snow-breaker, speaks an encouraging word to the poor animal. Every nerve and muscle is immediately strained to regain the lost path, and the horse again resumes his task as guide. This snow-breaker seems to possess an almost human intelligence. Neither darkness nor storms ever daunt him or cause him to be misled more than a few feet. When in doubt he will take little short steps, scarcely six inches in length, and each foot feels for the hard beaten ledge which forms the path.

The Republican State Convention.

After deliberating upon the basis of representation which each county should have in the called State Convention, the State Central Committee, which met in Virginia on Monday, finally decided to allow each county one delegate for each 100 votes and fraction of 100 over fifty, taking the average Republican vote cast at the last election for a basis.

Under this new apportionment the counties will be allowed delegates in the State Convention as follows: Storey county, 31; Eureka, 11; Elko, 9; Washoe, 8; Ormsby, 6; Lander, 5; Esmeralda, 5; Humboldt, 5; White Pine, 5; Lincoln, 4; Lyon, 4; Nye, 4; Churchill, 1. Total, 101.

As a test for the primaries, it was ordered that each man offering his vote at the primaries should be required to aver that he supported the state ticket at the last election, and to pledge himself to support the nominees of the Chicago Convention.

As the State Convention which is to meet in Austin will appoint a new State Central Committee, the committee adjourned sine die.

Net's Question Answered.

ED. GAZETTE:—Please inform the dear little girl whose non-de-plume is "Net," and who was so kind as to inquire why the Silver State Minstrels disbanded, that she was right in regard to "Walking for dat Cake." Thinking that one set of fools was enough for a town of this kind to support, and as the stage effects were not sufficient for us to produce that beautiful and most pathetic Farce (7) entitled "The Millionaire's Mandate, or Married by Will," (notwithstanding the author, Blue Jay Page, paid a lawyer the enormous sum of ten dollars for translating it from the Hebrew) we thought it better to retire, thinking "All's Wrong That Ends Wrong."

Lottie Roberts and Smith Hill's Sheets.

In the court of Justice Young Smith Hill has entered a complaint against Lottie Roberts. The latter had rented a furnished house on Lincoln avenue from Hill, and the complaint charges that in removing therefrom she had the frailty to convey away bedclothing and other property belonging to Hill. Lottie has filed an answer, in which she alleges that the bedclothing, etc., was removed with the knowledge and consent of complainant. Hill yesterday recovered his property under a warrant of search. Its value does not exceed $40. An examination into the case will be held shortly before Justice Young.

Difficulty in Come.

The Suture Independent of yesterday morning says: It is stated that the contract existing between Adam Welter, the millman, and the Eureka Co., Como, that required the latter to furnish 1000 tons of ore, to be milled at a cost of $10 per ton, has been ignored and broken by the Company. They claim that Mr. Welter, for some reason or other, did not mill their rock to one-half its value, while Mr. Welter argues that the fault lies in their having shipped him several tons of rock that was entirely barren. Welter's mill is now cranking ore from the North Rapid mine.

MIKE OWENS.

The Desperate Murderer Tells His Side of the Story.

Mike Owens, the murderer of Traver at Candelaria, is now safely locked up in the county jail at Aurora. He is sullen, and seldom speaks to anyone. He gives as his statement of the affair the following:

"As I came out from supper McLain and Traver went into the boarding-house and I remained outside. In about ten minutes McLain came out and took a pistol from his coat pocket and wiped it with his handkerchief and walked over to where I was standing and looked in my face and went into the house again. Then he and Traver came out, and McLain pulled his gun and pointed it at me, saying: 'Now, you — you will get coin.' I told him that I did not want any trouble; that I just wanted to ask Traver if he was going to pay me or not; all I wanted was for him to say yes or no. Traver said: 'Yes, you will get paid,' and at the same time they tried to catch hold of me, and I leaped past them and pulled my pistol and told them to keep away from me. They kept coming closer to me and backed me up about fifty feet. All that time I kept telling them to keep back and go away from me, but they kept closing in on me, and McLain had his gun within six inches of my breast, and I was within five feet of the house, and then I called for help. Then Traver hit me in the neck and knocked me against the side of the house, when McLain hit me on the nose with his gun and knocked me down with my back against the house, partly in a sitting position. Then Traver caught hold of my gun and tried to take it away from me. All this time McLain was beating me over the head with his pistol. My pistol was a self-cocker, and when Traver was trying to pull it away from me it went off, accidentally on my part. That was the first shot, and if Traver had not caught hold of my pistol he would be a living man to-day, and McLain—the bully and boss head-masher of Candelaria—would be in the happy hunting-grounds ere this.

TRUCKEE ITEMS.

From the Republican of To-day:
The Clinton Mill has 3,000,000 feet of logs on hand.

Snow at Ellen's mill, four miles from town, is six feet deep.

The large hotel at the Summit is almost deserted. Two of the railroad hands batch in its great empty apartments. Mr. J. A. Robb, the leasee, became discouraged at the lack of patronage and glided silently away.

Miss Kate Edwards, sister of W. F. Edwards of the Modoc Independent, was married last week in Berkeley. Her husband, a Mr. Woods, was lying at the point of death, a victim of quick consumption. Up to Monday last Mr. Woods was still alive, but his death was hourly expected.

A Mean Act.

When a modest garroter accidentally "stands up" an escaped bank president and relieves him of the savings of some poor widow, it cannot be considered much out of place, says the Bodie Free Press, as one is no more entitled to the booty than the other. But when he enters a restaurant, as one did yesterday, and picks up a set of false teeth that a customer had laid down beside his plate while eating a soft boiled egg, the police and Justice Court should deal with the thief as they would with an ordinary murderer. If an act like the above is repeated, the people will rise in righteous indignation and build a church with stone steps and a steeple two hundred feet high.

Deep Snow.

There are seven feet of snow in Clover valley, four feet at Beckwith, three feet in Sierra valley and eighteen inches in Susanville. Most of it fell during the recent storm. There has been no mail communication between Oroville and Indian valley since the 13th instant. The road from Reno has been kept open all winter and there has been no failure of mail connection. From the summit, 28 miles from Reno, there is now good sleighing for 50 miles on the road north.

Free Road.

A Fragrant Breath and Pearly Teeth. Are easily obtained by cleansing your teeth daily with that justly popular dentifrice, SOZODONT. Composed of rare antiseptic herbs, it imparts whiteness to the teeth, a delicious aroma to the breath, and preserves intact from youth to old age, the teeth. Acidity of the stomach will destroy the strongest teeth unless its effects are counteracted with SOZODONT, and this pure tooth-wash protects the dental surface by removing every impurity that adheres to them. There are many at the age of thirty and six-tions of the bladder, often accompanied by a slight smarting or burning sensation and a weakness of the system in a manner the patient cannot account for. On examining the urinary deposits a rosy sediment will often be found, and some small particles of albumen will appear, or the color will be of a thin milky hue, again changing to a dark and torpid appearance. There are many men who die of this difficulty, ignorant of the cause, which is the second stage of seminal weak-

JEWELRY

$75.00 worth for $15.00.

Solid Abyssinian Gold Watch

FREE! FREE!! FREE!!!

The above offer is genuine, although at first sight you would consider it impossible. We will explain: Since we first established our business here, March 1st, 1878, we have paid particular attention to the buying, repairing, and auction lots of Jewels and Watches often buying at as low as one-tenth their value. In no instance have we paid over one-sixth the manufacturers' price. Since starting we have always been able to dispose of these goods in Chicago and through our regular customers throughout the country at nearly regular prices, as fast as we could procure them, but owing to the large number of failures among the jewellers and manufacturers throughout this and other countries during the months of June, July, and August (the time when the jewelry business is stagnant), we have now on hand an immense stock of the most desirable goods we have ever handled, and we are now selling at lower prices than ever before. In order to dispose of this entire stock in the most speedy manner possible, and make room for new goods which we shall come to buy, we have hit upon the following novel plan:

We propose to give you a list of the most desirable of the goods, giving opposite each article its retail value, and we will sell to you at the rate of Five Dollars' worth for $1. For instance, on receipt of 50 cts. we will send you, postpaid, any article to the value of $2.50; on receipt of $1, articles to the value of $5; and so on throughout the entire list.
Below we give a list of the most valuable of these goods.

The Sentinel, of Chicago, Sept. 9, says:
"We call the attention of our readers to the new advertisement of the Inventors' Agency, No. 115 E. Washington street, Chicago. What the Inventors' Agency agrees to do, they will do. The Sentinel has advertised for persons since its first publication and we have yet to hear of their complaint against it."

The Chicago Express, Sept. 3, says: "The attention of readers is called to the advertisement of 'The Inventors' Agency,' office and rooms located at 115 Washington St., Chicago.
From personal inquiry and on the recommendation of the city press, we think our friends can do no better when wanting goods in that line. Give them a trial."

"The American Stockman, Sept. 11, says:
"We believe this institution perfectly sound and responsible, and consequently persons need have no hesitation about sending for what they desire."
